

VANCOUVER BIKENNALE ROUTE MAP

TIP: Watch for BIKEnnale volunteers at each location. Get free souvenirs, learn about the sculptures and get directions to the next stop.

01 217.15 Arcs x 13
Bernar Venet (France)
Sunset Beach, Beach Avenue
and Jervis Street

02 Engagement
Dennis Oppenheim (USA)
Sunset Beach Park, Beach Avenue
between Broughton Street
and Jervis Street

TIP: Follow the bike path from the lower seawall to the upper seawall as you get to the Inukshuk.

03 A-maze-ing Laughter
Yue Minjun (China)
Morton Triangle on Denman
at Davie Street

TIP: Follow the upper seawall bike path into Stanley Park. When you get to the Second Beach playground, follow the bike path that turns right towards Lost Lagoon. If you get to the Second Beach swimming Pool, you've gone a bit too far! Follow the bike path parallel to Lost Lagoon through the Georgia Street underpass. Turn right over the small curved bridge and continue around the waterfront around the Westin Bayshore Hotel.

04 Meeting
Wang Shugang (China)
Cardero Park, Cardero Street
and Coal Harbour Quay

05 Skin of time
Choi Tae Hoon (Korea)
Harbour Green Park, West Cordova
and Bute Street

06 King and Queen
Sorel Etrog (Canada)
Harbour Green Park, Parallel to West Cordova, between Jervis and Bute Street

TIP: You have three options for getting back to Sunset Beach.

1. You can simply turn around and follow the exact route back.
2. You can turn around and then use the separated bike lane heading South on Cardero St.
3. You can continue to ride East along the seawall to Canada Place, enjoy the sights and then use the separated bike lane heading South on Hornby St.
